Dr. J. W. Stewart went to Ludlow this morning for a visit over Christmas at his home.

Miss Annie Summers went to her home in West Berlin this morning for a few days' visit.

Men's and boys' sweaters, all styles, from 50c to $7.50, from the Frank McWhorter company.

Such a variety of handkerchiefs for men, women and children—always good for presents—at Perry's.

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Adams left to-day for Sherburne, Mass., to visit their daughter, Mrs. Arthur Houghton.

Earle L. Waterman returned last night to spend the Christmas vacation from State College, Pa., where he is an instructor.

Bibles, diaries, Catholic prayer books, Christmas stationery, tags, seals, letters, booklets and gift books at the Barre Book Store.

Go to the home of shirtwaists to buy your Christmas waists. Every style is new and the assortment is complete. We have specials every day this week. Paris Shirtwaist House.

There will be a special meeting of Granite City camp, No. 886, M. W. of A., Sunday, December 26, at 1:30 p. m. sharp, for the purpose of attending the funeral of our late neighbor, John F. McDonald. John Rowley, consul; A. J. Loranger, clerk.

Each week, on "merchants' day," the board of trade rooms in the Langdon block, will be open for the benefit of strangers, furnishing a place to leave bundles and get any information necessary in regard to the city.

Rev. and Mrs. A. J. Hough were thrown from their sleigh yesterday afternoon while out driving and were somewhat shaken up, although not seriously injured. Mr. Hough was confined to the bed for the rest of the day.

A solemn high mass will be celebrated to-night at midnight in St. Augustine's church, with a very fine program of vocal and instrumental music by the choir. The children's choir will render a special program at 10:30 a. m., Christmas day.

The W. V. Phelps company of Enosburg Falls yesterday filed articles of association with the secretary of state, with a capital of $10,000. The company is formed for doing a general manufacturing and milling business. The incorporators are W. V. Phelps, J. B. Kimball, H. W. Shorer, C. S. Forsyth and A. G. Armstrong.

The body of Mrs. Daniel (Carrier) Leno of Middlesex, who died in Worcester, Mass., Monday, was brought to this city Wednesday for burial in the North branch cemetery. She was born in Pike's River, Lower Falls, Canada, and was nearly 80 years of age. When she was 16 years old, she married Daniel Leno of Salisbury, and of twelve children born to them, five survive.

Roswell VanOrman has bought of Amasa Brown of Worcester the latter's mail route between Worcester and Montpelier. He will still operate the express and passenger route between Maple Corner and this city by way of Worcester and will continue to run the North Calais and Admont mail stage. This will give Mr. VanOrman the contract to carry mail to Worcester, Putnamville, Calais, North Calais and Admont, probably serving more post offices by carrying mail than any other man in Vermont. He will hire a man to deliver the mail on his newly purchased route. The pay is $718 a year, and he will assume its duties January 1.

R. H. Bapp will open a barber shop in Easterbrook's store next Monday.
